

LIVELY RACING AT CLIFTON.

AL FARROW WINS AT A MILE ON THE FRACTIONAL TRACK IN 1:42.

The Eminence Filly, an Underaker, Leads a Big Field at a Mile and a Quarter—Today Men's Reporter is a Grand Photo.

A great holiday crowd enjoyed the races at Clifton yesterday. The course was in splendid condition. Fast time was made. Al Farrow winning the mile race in 1:42 on the three-quarters track. Some of the finishers were neck-and-neck affairs, and as the winners were generally well backed, the regulars returned to town with lots of money in their pockets.

Eleven started in the opening scramble of five furlongs. Tloga, favorite at 13 to 5, not away with a flying lead of two lengths and was never headed, winning by three lengths. Musquay unseating the place from Censor by a head.

Eleven two-year-olds scampered away in the second race. Pheobe may be living virtually left at the post. Zenobia, in favor at even money, won by half a length from Baychester. Rumpus coming in a poor third.

Cost, Lusa, Deer Lodge, Red Elm, and Mania were all well supported in the third race at Abner odds. Censor's made the running to within fifty yards of the stand, where she was collared by Deer Lodge and beaten by a head. Red Elm came in third, two lengths behind Censor.

The fourth race at a mile was a horse race. Al Farrow at 8 to 1, I amaged, beat Jack Rose. A. 7 to 1, chance, by a neck. Elyion, the favorite, third, halflapping Jack Rose.

The start of the day came in the fifth race. The Lutonites Filly, an Eminence, a 12 to 1 shot, ran her way with driving power and won by a nose, just ahead of the winner, by a neck from Trilip, a 10 to 1 chance. Outbound, the favorite, finished a poor third.

Miss Watson and Beauty were easily headed to win the last race. The field was the finest of the day. Dillinger, Sunday, a 10 to 1 chance, beat the others repeated.

Alstro Hall being the place by a neck.

RACES AT GUTTENBURG.

A Great Gathering on the Weights—Mowers About Evenly Divided.

An immense crowd attended the races at Guttensburg yesterday. The betting ring was packed, and the majority of visitors were content to hand their money to the first bookmakers they could reach. The races began the day in good shape. Savia was made an even-money favorite for the first race, and skittishly ridden by Frauncis, she won with something to spare.

The bookmakers had their losses in the second event. Savia was an even-money favorite and carried thousands of dollars, while Kate Clark, who had been running remarkably steadily, went home with a loss. She appeared to have taken the lead at the tail of the day, continuing all the way, while the favorite finished fifth.

A while ago Slosson was inaugurated on Lekkerwood to win the third race, and his price was forced down from 3 to 1 to 5. He got off about tenth, gradually improved his position, but could not quite get up, and was beaten a head by Sallies.

The upset of the day occurred in the fourth race, a handicap at a mile and a furlong. Drivite was the favorite at 6 to 5, with Kenwood a close second, odds at 7 to 5. Both carried a limit of money, while the winner, Mr. H. J. Smith, had $100 added, of which $20 to 100 was sent to the favorite. The J. Atwood, after a lively tussle with Blanche and stoutly ridden by a jockey, was beaten a head by Sallies.
